

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The New Beginnings Center was established in 1974 in Aberdeen, South Dakota to serve the northeastern area of the state; and,

WHEREAS, In this decade, the Center has served well over 1,000 young people and their families through services which include: shelter, food and clothing for young people, counseling services for these young people and their families and a crisis line; and,

WHEREAS, Juveniles in need of assistance during a crisis involving family, home or juvenile justice authorities know that there is help and moral support available to them at the New Beginnings Center; and,

WHEREAS, The Center serves as a support system to young people in need of direction and strives to enhance their capabilities to develop emotional strength, social stability, and a renewed outlook on daily living; and,

WHEREAS, We commend the New Beginnings Center for its successful record of assistance to juveniles in need:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 18 to 25, 1984, as

NEW BEGINNINGS WEEK

In South Dakota, and I wish the Center, its staff and board members many more years of continued success in befriending the young people of South Dakota as they travel on their journey to becoming happy, useful, and successful citizens.
